NO GOING BACK

Become an architect of change

Employ a No Going Back candidate and make a difference

No Going Back have a wealth of experience in preparing people with convictions for jobs and supporting them into employment.

As an employer ourselves, with our own Social Enterprise, we understand the requirements of both employers and candidates. We manage relationships and the recruitment and employment processes closely to ensure they are as seamless as possible.

Our Skills Development and Employment Leads know each of our candidates really well and work with them 1-2-1, taking great care to match their skills to the employer's criteria. They remain a point of contact for in work support for both sides from pre recruitment and beyond.

No Going Back undertake all due diligence and risk assessment through the NGB screening processes. Furthermore, we work collaboratively with Probation and other services to ensure every candidate receives whatever extensive support they might need.

Talk to us if you would like to help change a life.

We prepare candidates for work in a range of industry sectors with a particular focus on Facilities Management in support of our own Social Enterprise.
